

My name is Kari Deppe and I'm contacting you on behalf of Calvary Church in West Lafayette, Indiana. Calvary Church is advertising to hire a Director of Children's Ministries. I am contacting you to kindly request this position be posted on your job board through your career services center. Please see the link below for a description of this position and information on how interested applicants may apply. If there is someone else that I should be reaching out to with this request, I would appreciate any help identifying the appropriate contact at your organization. On behalf of Calvary Church, I'd like to thank you for your assistance in helping us find a suitable candidate for this position that will help further God's mission.

<https://yourcalvary.church/search/>