

Located in rural central Pennsylvania, First Baptist Church of Juniata County is seeking a full-time senior pastor. The senior pastor will fulfill the following biblical purposes of ministry: to feed the flock of God from God's precious Word and to give oversight and leadership to the people of God in the local assembly (1 Peter 5:2, Hebrews 15:7, Acts 20: 27-28), to be a spiritual example to the flock (1 Peter 5:3), to train and equip the saints so that they may be able to do the work of the ministry (Ephesians 4: 11-13), to be given to hospitality and able to teach (1 Timothy 3: 1-7), to preach the Word, reprove, rebuke, and exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine (2 Timothy 4: 2, 1 Timothy 5:17-18), to be involved in doing the work of evangelism along with the rest of the body of Christ (2 Timothy 4:5), and to pray for the saints as the Apostle Paul set the example (Ephesians 1:15-16) and to pray for the lost (1 Timothy 2:1-4). For more information about First Baptist and the community, the specific job duties of the senior pastor, and how to apply, all interested applicants should go to https://www.fbcmiff.com/pastoral\_search.