

Pastor of Yorkville Community Church

Yorkville, Richland, Michigan – north of Kalamazoo

Beginning this fall or as soon as possible.....half-time....decent half-time salary

A great opportunity for a seminary student or someone who wants to love our Lord and people and build this into a full-time pastorate.

The church is presently being coached by Knute Larson, who pastored two churches in Ohio for 43 years and now coaches small and large churches from SW Michigan. If the new pastor wishes, he would continue to coach the pastor behind the scenes for the first year.

Yorkville is a church in need of reorganization guidance, and is open to that. Presently there is a church council of 11 members, a board of elders overseeing Sundays and pastoral care, and several organizations whose chair people sit on the council. Attendance after a church split almost a year ago is 30-40 on a good Sunday.

The beautiful building is located in Yorkville, a community very close to Gull Lake. It was once a Methodist Church but is now independent and seeking to be evangelical in approach. The church has no debt.

Interest and a resume can be sent to knutelarson@gmail.com.
