

Associate Pastor

We are seeking an associate pastor who will shepherd our church body alongside our Senior Pastor. The Associate Pastor must be, first, a man who is biblically qualified to serve as an elder in the church. While working alongside the Senior Pastor in all areas of ministry, the Associate Pastor's responsibilities will emphasize discipleship ministry to our youth and families, education programs, and church administration. Additional responsibilities include teaching, occasional pulpit ministry, and (optional) music ministry oversight. A bachelor's degree in biblical doctrine, theology, or Christian education; and biblical counseling training are desired. Prior ministry experience in discipleship ministry, education, and church administration is also desired.

If you meet these qualifications and believe that you may be called to worship Jesus Christ and serve Him with us, please consider applying for this position.
