

Kenai Grace Brethren Church is seeking a pastor to lead and shepherd the local body on behalf of our chief Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Responsibilities include

- Leading the church's services through expository preaching and biblical teaching
- Further shepherding (hospital visits, intentional fellowship and discipling, and counseling)

Ideal candidate

- Be a baptized, born-again disciple of Jesus Christ with a clear call and dedication to pastoral ministry and have the heart of a shepherd.
- Be biblically qualified as found in: 1 Timothy 3:1–7, Titus 1:6–9, and 1 Peter 5:2&3.
- Be a man who believes in the power of prayer, has a strong personal prayer and devotional life, and who is pursuing righteousness and a godly life.
- Be willing and able to play a vital role in the work of an elder led congregation.
- Be theologically aligned with Kenai Grace and the Charis Commitment to Common Identity including Threefold Communion and Triune Immersion.
- Be a part of the mission team and worship team meetings
- Have a passionate desire to lead believers in their spiritual devotion to Christ and to see unbelievers come to Christ.
- Share in our desire to strive together through the Holy Spirit to know and display the love of God by devoting ourselves to His Word, fervent prayer, intentional fellowship, and spreading the gospel.
