

Straits Corners Baptist Church, an Independent Baptist church in rural upstate New York, is seeking a full time pastor who will lead/oversee our worship and congregation. We are a "people's church", who seek to make decisions as a team, whether this is through the elder board, or a church member vote for important issues.

We meet every Sunday at 10:00 AM, with a Sunday School hour afterwards. We seek to share the life changing Gospel through Jesus Christ, give opportunities for discipleship, spiritual growth and fellowship, restore the broken, and invest in ministries and missions.

A prospective candidate should have the following:

- A relationship with Jesus Christ that is resulting in growth and change
- Healthy communication and interpersonal skills
- A teachable spirit
- The ability to understand and work in both church and community contexts and culture.
- Experience working in a multigenerational church setting
- A team player with some experience working in some church leadership setting.
