

The Center for Whitley County Youth

The Center for Whitley County Youth is a local nonprofit that invests in 6th-12th grade students through individual relationships and intentional programs to move students forward in their walks with Jesus.

Our high school program, Ground Zero offers opportunities for high school students to know that they are seen, heard, and loved.

Our ultimate goal is for students to enter into impactful relationships with caring adults and have a safe space to become the best version of themselves.

The Center for Whitley County Youth, an award-winning*, non-profit, community-based, youth development organization benefiting Whitley County since 2005. To learn more about The Center, its mission, and its impact, please visit www.thecenterwcy.com.

Columbia City HS Program Director

- Part-time: 15-20 hours
- Base pay: $16,000-$21,000
- Annual paid time off: 5 vacation days; 3 sick days; 3 personal days; 2 spiritual renewal days
- Voluntary 3% retirement match available, and according to policy moving forward
- Employer paid trainings & professional development as budgeted
- Flexible schedule
- Possibility of eventual full-time position with right fit

Roles and Responsibilities

- (60%) Ground Zero Program
 - Create welcoming environment where students feel seen, heard, and loved
 - Develop adult leader teams and meal teams for programming
 - Spend time empowering and encouraging leaders
 - Build creative and engaging programming nights
 - Collaborate with other community youth leaders
- (20%) Student Engagement
 - Meeting with students one-on-one
 - Meeting with students in groups
 - School lunches/events
- (10%) Administrative Work
 - Consistent attendance tracking
 - Buying drinks for monday nights
 - Keeping social media up to date
- (10%) Miscellaneous
 - Cross-training and staff team depth
 - Learn/engage in leadership development opportunities with other staff when able

Qualifications:

- Committed Christ-follower regularly involved in and attending a local church.
- Earned or pursuing a Bachelor's Degree from an accredited university or college preferred, but not necessarily required.

- Background in youth ministry, education, or after-school programming preferred, but not necessarily required.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Positive and excited about investing in the next generation.
- Must pass a background check.

Contact Information

To apply, complete an application at

<https://www.cognitoforms.com/thecenterforwhitleycountyyouth/employmentinteresthighschoolprogramingatthecenterforwhitleycountyyouth>. For other questions about the position, contact Jake Johnson at jake@thecentercc.com.