

WORSHIP LEADER AND/OR YOUTH LEADER WANTED

Syracuse Church of God at 104 E Washington Street in Syracuse, Indiana is looking to help a college student or someone who has just graduated college gain experience in the field of ministry by leading the worship segment of our Sunday services AND/OR someone to help us start a youth group.

About us:

- We are super loving and inviting.
- We love the Lord and His Word.
- Average attendance is about 50.
- We are easy going and love to laugh and joke!
- We are forgiving and gracious, but serious about spiritual purity.
- We are investing about $15,000 in new AV equipment.

The ideal person(s) for us would be:

- Christ-centered and full of love for all age groups.
- Dependable, with transportation.
- Able to play an instrument.
- Computer literate.
- Some knowledge of sound boards and AV equipment.
- Teachable and enthusiastic.
- Flexible and easy-going.

The right candidate(s) would receive:

- A small love offering each week.
- Experience.
- Exposure, as we live feed each week.
- References.
- We can fill out paperwork for college credit and/or apprenticeships.
- Love and support.

The demands on your time would be very small, or as much as you care to devote. We can also work with multiple people taking turns each Sunday. We would deeply desire to give someone a loving church home and a place to spread their wings and grow in knowledge of service to Jesus!

Please call Pastor Adam Dunlap at (260)615-5655 or Julia Dunlap at (260)615-3959. Our services can be viewed on Facebook at Syracuse Church of God. God bless!
