

Right to Life of North Central Indiana Staff Opening

Youth Outreach Coordinator

Right to Life of North Central Indiana is looking for a qualified individual to expand its youth outreach in the nine North Central Indiana counties served by the organization and help to encourage and equip high school and college young people in their pro-life efforts. Responsibilities will include meeting with pastors, preparing and giving presentations to youth groups, and starting and assisting Students for Life groups on high school and college campuses. The ideal candidate's qualifications will include a positive attitude, strong interpersonal skills with young people and adults, self-motivated, comfortable with public speaking, and ability to work well independently. This is a full-time, salaried position and will require travel within the nine-county region. Send cover letter and resume to info@nci4life.org.
