Dear friends in Christ:

Cobbs Creek Missionary Baptist Church, located in Sod, WV is prayerfully seeking a full-time Senior Pastor. We are a congregation of believers with an average worship attendance of approximately 50 individuals on Sundays. We are searching for a pastoral leader passionate about preaching the Word of God and fostering spiritual growth in the church and community through visitation and fellowship.

Qualifications: Interested candidates would have a bachelor's degree and some seminary training, preferably, effective preaching and communication skills, comfortable with traditional worship, a heart for visitation, outreach and mission work, along with the ability to develop engaging programs for youth and children.

We believe God has prepared a man and will call that man to this service. Join us in prayer as we seek to find this man and that he will answer this call.

Any questions or concerns can be directed to Tim Holstine at 304-550-5910. Interested applicants can submit a resume and sample message, if available, via the following avenues:
