

The Naples Gathering, located in Naples, Florida is a thriving, independent evangelical church seeking to fill an Associate Pastor position. Please share this opportunity with your graduating students and alumni and others through your placement office.

About The Church:

This is a growing-five-year-old congregation of approximately 200 adult members
The church facility is located on more than seven acres of property within a half mile to the interstate and is completely debt-free
The community of Naples, Florida is a vibrant, family-friendly, coastal community

About The Staff:

Senior pastor holds a doctorate degree and is a powerful preacher, respected teacher and communicator who reaches over 600 radio stations weekly with biblical teaching
Director of Administration holds a doctorate degree and manages the ministries and day to day activities.
Director of Music is distinguished musician, church choral and orchestra leader
Director of Facilities is an engineer who manages the facility and the plans for building the new church.

About The Position:

We are looking for a spiritually mature, very relational, and biblically grounded leader who will serve along side the Senior Pastor shepherding the church family. The position can be full-time or part-time and will be tailored to the candidate's gifts and calling. We welcome candidates who are aligned with evangelical Christian doctrine and who have a heart for ministry in a dynamic non-denominational setting.

How To Apply:

Interested individuals may submit a resume and a brief statement of faith to NaplesMinistry@gmail.com. We are committed to a thoughtful and prayerful selection process.